Stanford Conference Services Guidelines for Youth Program Participants

Welcome to Stanford University! We want you to have a wonderful and safe time while you are here on our campus. Here are some guidelines to help you enjoy your stay. If you have any questions, please speak with you Camp Counselor, or contact your Conference Front Desk.

STANFORD'S CODE OF CONDUCT

Since this may be your first time at the University, it is important to remember that as a Stanford Guest, you are expected to abide by the same code of conduct that is required of our regular students. This means respecting others who are sharing the campus with you, and respecting Stanford property. Occasionally, due to behavioral issues, youth participants are asked to leave the University. Any of the following actions could result in a participant's removal from the University's premises:

Unruly behavior.

Disrespect for University property of personnel.

Derogatory comments or gestures made to any members of the University community. Intimidation of others through the threat or use of violence.

Use or possession of alcohol, illegal drugs, firearms, or firecrackers.

Tampering with fire alarms or other actions that could affect the safety of others.

If your program is using classroom or auditorium space, please remember that these facilities are frequently located near faculty and staff offices and/or regular Stanford classes. In consideration of your campus neighbors, we ask that you please refrain from engaging in the following activities:

Running, loud talking, or horseplay in the halls of these buildings. Requesting to use office phones, except in an emergency.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

We want all of our guests to feel safe and secure while visiting the University. You can help us by following these directions:

Be sure to read the important Emergency Evacuation information posted on the bask of the door to your sleeping room. This information includes special instructions about what to do in the event of an earthquake, fire, or other campus emergency.

Ensure that doors firmly latch behind you when entering/exiting a building.

Do not prop doors open.

Do not allow strangers into the residences.

Carry your keys with you at all times; please do not lend out your keys.

Keep doors and windows locked when you leave your room.

Do not sit on window ledges or climb in or out of windows.

If you need to leave early for medical or family reasons, please be sure to notify your Camp Counselor.

Do not bring candles into your residence as they are considered a fire hazard.

STANFORD ADVANCED SUZUKI INSTITUTE TEEN DORM BEHAVIOR AGREEMENT To be given to Suzuki teen dorm staff upon arrival

I have read and understand the behavior requirements from the Stanford Conference Office. My behavior is a reflection of the Institute. I understand how important it is to maintain good manners and not engage in inappropriate behavior that would not be in accordance with my parents' approval. If my behavior interferes with the positive experience of a student, parent, teacher, or staff member, my parents will be called and I will be subject to immediate withdrawal from the Stanford Advanced Suzuki Institute.
